- I. The College of Engineering Course Committee (hereafter referred to as “the Committee”) is established in accordance with “Enforcement Rules of the University Act” and Article 3 of National Sun Yat-sen University’s (hereafter referred to as “the University”) Establishment Guidelines for Course Committees in order to improve course quality and contents of the College of Engineering (hereafter referred to as “the College”).
- II. The Committee comprises several members, including Dean, Vice Dean, Chairman of departments, and Chairman of programs being the ex officio members of the Committee. In addition, each department and institute shall nominate one full-time faculty member as a Committee member. Each department and institute shall in turns to recommend one undergraduate student and one graduate student to attend relevant meetings. One external expert shall be recommended to attend relevant meetings. The meetings are convened by Dean of the College, and the term for the recommended members is two years.
- III. Committee meetings must present an attendance rate of 50% prior to review. Decisions must be supported by 50% of the attendees.
- IV. The obligations of the Committee are in accordance with the University’s establishment guidelines for course committees.
- V. The present guidelines shall be implemented following approvals of college general meetings, the University Course Committee, and academic affairs meetings. The same procedure shall be carried out when amendments are to be made.
